This logging plan has been submitted to CDF by the YMCA San Francisco, owners of Camp Jones Gulch (aka Science Camp), to log 733 acres of the 907 acre property, cutting 60% of redwood and fir trees 18 inches in diameter or larger, on slopes of 5% to 80%. Though old growth (40+ inches) would likely be excluded in the first round of cutting, the permit would be in perpetuity (forever), and every 15 years another round of logging could occur with no more public input, and old growth could be cut then. The proposed logging would result in ten truckloads per day for 8-10 weeks, winter harvesting, impacts to local creeks and to our community.

POINTS TO MAKE

To the YMCA: This plan should be withdrawn by the YMCA, and land stewardship that does not include timber harvesting should be considered.

To CDF: This plan should be denied and list some of the reasons why you believe that, using info. from the plan (or paragraph above).

For more info., visit GreenFoothills.org. To sign the petition urging the YMCA to withdraw this plan, call Patty Mayall 650-851-1902 . If you are collecting signatures, please return them to Patty by Sept. 5.

THANK YOU: Our voices can make a difference!
